Berlin, Wednesday, March 6.—The vicinity of police headquarters today was the scene of continual street fighting between government troops and Spartacist rioters, comprising soldiers, sailors and strikers. At one o'clock this afternoon the troops and policemen fired heavily with machine guns on the crowds. Strong reinforcements were sent to police headquarters last night, including a field battery of six pieces. Minor clashes occurred there almost hourly yesterday, the casualties being six dead and 20 wounded. At 10 o'clock this morning two persons were killed in a clash between troops and rioters in the Moabit district.

Copenhagen, March 6.—Both the Spartacists and the government forces had a large number killed in fighting yesterday before police headquarters, says a Berlin dispatch. The fighting finally was ended by negotiations. An account of the fighting given in a Berlin telegram filed at 4 o'clock this morning says that yesterday afternoon the crowds before police headquarters assumed a threatening character so that the square had to be continually cleared by government troops. Towards 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Spartacists made an effort to smash the door of the headquarters by hand grenades and shots. This attack was accompanied by general firing against the buildings from surrounding houses and streets, the government troops replying from the headquarters. About 80 civilians and soldiers tried to storm a building in a side street where the government had stationed artillery but they were repulsed. During the afternoon some sailor detachments crept continually nearer the headquarters, placed machine guns in the adjoining streets and erected barracks.

Copenhagen, March 6.—No newspapers appeared in Berlin this morning as all the compositors went on strike Wednesday night.

(By Associated Press)

Paris, March 6.—British and French, Italy, delegates have been outspoken in the supreme war council and the supreme economic council in criticism of the food blockade which the Italian government is maintaining against Dalmatia, Bosnia, Herzegovina, Croatia and Slovenia. The new democracies built out of the old Austrian empire are rolled upon by the Entente as a protection against the Bolshevik wave and the food shortage. In them is creating chaos. While the American delegates are less outspoken than the British and French, they are concerned over the situation which is stopping all American relief work. The persistence of the Italian blockade and what are described as Italy's efforts to obtain political advantage are creating such bitterness that some of the European representatives are suggesting the possibility of the discontinuance of American relief for

BERLIN GENERAL STRIKE AGAIN FAILS TO WIN SUPPORT OF GERMAN SOCIALISTS

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Wednesday, March 6.—A leader of the Majority Socialists today that the general strike was a failure. Wherever workingmen bailed out secretly the opposition to the strike was overwhelming. Another effort by the Spartacists to secure the proclamation of a general strike at Dresden and Magdeburg has failed. Normal conditions have been restored at Halle. At Leipzig the general strike of citizens as a counter action against the industrial walkout continues. The strike committee there is said to be short of funds and is endeavoring to force the banks to reopen. The bank clerks refuse to resume work until food distribution is safeguarded and electric plants are again in operation.

WIFE SLAYER LORD GIVEN LIFE TERM

Nashua, March 6.—Wilfred Lord, 24, pleaded guilty to first degree murder yesterday when arraigned on the charge of slaying his wife, Orna Tetra Lord, and was sentenced to life imprisonment. The arraignment came about 4.45 o'clock, and shortly after 5 o'clock Lord was on his way to the state prison at Concord in the custody of Jailer Phinney, to begin serving his sentence. Later in the afternoon City Solicitor John R. Springer made public the reason, which up to this time has been kept secret, why Lord entered a plea of guilty.

The city solicitor declares that the chief of police found in Lord's room, at the home of his mother, 87 Palm street, a sealed but unaddressed letter signed by Lord, in which the latter confessed to having killed his wife, and ascribed the reason to jealousy. A number of cartridges of the same calibre as the bullet that killed Mrs. Lord were found with the letter. The city solicitor refused to give out the text of the letter, but declares that when it was shown to Atty. J. J. Doyle, Lord's counsel, the latter agreed that the guilty plea was the only one that could be recorded.

Lord was captured in Newark, N. J., two months after the murder, and after the police of the country had been on the lookout for him and the Pinkertons had been called into the hunt. It is declared that fully 400 different clues were followed without avail, and the arrest came about through the chance recognition of a young man from Nashua who happened to be in Newark and reported to the police.

The murder was premeditated and in cold blood. Lord and his wife had not been living together for some time but on his earnest plea, she decided to give him another chance. On Dec. 18 he met her at a shop where she was employed, and induced her to go with him to their home at Gilman street. Lord fired one shot at his wife, but this missed and went into the wall. She fled into the hallway where he caught her and thrust her into a closet then firing the fatal bullet into her temple. Her body was found the next day by her brother-in-law, who happened to go to the house.

In Memoriam

For the first time in the memory of our oldest citizens, the people of Kittery Point, gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the living can render the dead, to two of our lifelong citizens who, having passed over three score years in the village of their birth and over forty-five years of which they were happily married. They were stricken with the dread pneumonia within a few hours of each other, and the efficient staff of doctors and nurse, and loving children were in constant attendance and everything known to medical skill and loving hearts could think of or devise was done, the end was inevitable, and they succumbed to the dreadful disease within a short time of each other. They were buried side by side in one grave in their family lot in the Baptist cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Eleazer Williams Hoyt was born in Kittery Point Oct. 11, 1852, and was the youngest child of the late Capt. Thomas O. and Jane (Frisbee) Hoyt and died Mar. 3rd, 1919, and is survived by one brother, Capt. Julius C. Hoyt, and two sisters, Mrs. V. H. Goodwin and Mrs. Harry Handoff, all of Kittery Point. His wife, Martha T., was born in Kittery Point Aug. 28, 1857, and was the daughter of the late Moses and Nancy (Weeks) Ames, died March 1st, 1919, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Charles N. Todd of Beverly, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt are survived by four children, Mrs. Melvin A. Blake, Mrs. Manning W.

Lawry, Mrs. J. Percy Ames and Ernest T. Hoyt, and eight grandchildren, all of Kittery Point, and a large circle of more distant relatives and friends to whom they had endeavored themselves by a long life of cheerfulness, integrity and good fellowship to all.

The services were held in the Free Will Baptist church of which they had both been life-long supporters, and were conducted by their former pastor, Rev. E. W. Cummings, now of Davis, N. H., assisted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie, who spoke words of comfort, consolation and sympathy to those present who paid their last tribute of respect to two of their best known and most highly respected citizens. Mr. Sprague of Kittery very touchingly rendered "My Saviour First of All," "Abide With Me," and "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" Mrs. Daniel Frisbee was accompanist. The committal service was held at the grave.

The profusion of floral tributes was typical of the esteem in which the deceased was held by the entire community.

The services were in charge of Federal Director Trotter of Portsmouth, N. H.

A GREAT BLOW TO NAVY SAYS SEC. DANIELS

Washington, March 5.—Secretary Daniels said last night that the failure of Congress to pass the annual Navy appropriation bill and the general deficiency measure made "a hard task much harder. It embarrasses us very much," declared the Secretary.

Failure of the deficiency bill, the secretary said, was the most serious blow to the department, as it would have made available money needed in the next few months. Without his money, it might be necessary to dismiss many employees, the Secretary added. He said he had not had opportunity to determine the full effect of the Navy of the failure of the two bills, but that among others one immediate effect would be to prevent the transferring of 100 Naval reservists into the permanent Navy, authority for which had been asked, effective immediately upon completion of the Navy bill.

The Ford Eagle boat is the best type of submarine chaser in existence, and is required as a part of a complete navy, even in peace time, the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, which inquired into construction of the craft, reported to the Senate.

No charges against the Ford Motor Company, which contracted to build the Eagle boats during the war, were sustained. Testimony of Naval experts was presented to support the report that the boats were built as economically and quickly as circumstances permitted, although the expectations of the Navy and the Ford Company were not met. Completion of sixty of the boats and cancellation of contracts for 52 were approved by the sub-committee.

The Deportation Question.

Some of the labor unionists of the country have become alarmed by the decision of the government to deport dangerous aliens. The fact that some, if not many, of these characters are to be found in the labor unions has led to the groundless fear on the part of some that radical labor agitation was to be interfered with. This fear led the Central Federation of New York to send to Washington a telegram protesting against the alleged deportation of aliens for strike activities.

But that nothing of this sort is contemplated was made clear by Secretary of Labor Wilson at the conference of governors and mayors held in Washington a few days ago. The conference adopted a resolution endorsing a statement by Secretary Wilson that it was his duty to deport all persons advocating the overthrow of the government by force, and a copy of the resolution was sent to the New York body from which the telegram had been received, this being done to acquaint the members of the organization with the actual facts in the case.

In his statement to the conference Secretary Wilson said: "No one is being deported because of his union affiliations and strike activities. It is the duty of the secretary of labor to deport all who advocate the overthrow of the government by force, but no one will be deported because he is a radical. Advocates of overthrowing government by force must be considered an invading enemy. When such are found guilty this department will deport them." Further, Secretary Wilson said aliens would not be denied the privilege of going to the extremes of socialism and individualism in a peaceful way.

Certainly there is nothing in this attitude of which any reasonable person can complain. The government not only has the right to deport aliens convicted of plotting against it, but it is its duty to do so.

And it also has the right to define a "peaceful way" of going to the extremes of socialism and individualism. As this paper said only recently, the violent agitators have been given a latitude in the past which to many people seemed positively dangerous. Red flags have been carried in parades and speeches and publications have been permitted which were calculated to inflame the ignorant and pave the way for trouble—all in the name of "free speech."

It is well to have a clear understanding of this matter, and this should come from Secretary Wilson's statement to the Washington conference and the resolution adopted by the conference. Beyond this there should be no hedging. Aliens convicted of plotting against the security of the government cannot be ferried across the Atlantic too soon, and labor agitators should also be taught that there are bounds beyond which it is not safe for them to go, for it is a matter of common knowledge that some of them have in the past gone beyond the bounds of propriety and safety.

The Concord Monitor, always a clean and powerful newspaper, looks even more up to date in its new dress and style. The Monitor has always been a fearless paper and has wielded a powerful influence. Under its founder it always attacked fraud and did much to throttle control from the railroad and other corporate powers. The people look to the present editor to continue that policy and expose political tricksters. The Monitor is a great newspaper and a credit to the state.

It is said the railroads may be returned to their owners sooner than was expected because of the failure of Congress to make the necessary appropriation for them before adjourning. And there are many whose feelings would not be hurt by such an outcome. As viewed by the ordinary, everyday citizen, government railroading hasn't been a howling success.

Herbert Hoover will boss the job of spending the $100,000,000 recently appropriated by Congress for food relief in the Old World. It is a big job, but his experience, capacity and integrity well qualify him for the tremendously responsible duty.

Of course Congress laughed heartily when Vice President Marshall announced that it was adjourned "sine die." But it was well that a little comedy should be thrown in with the tragedy of the session.

Will someone tell our people just why all the big coal carrying ships are tied up in our harbors and have been for the past six weeks? Just what does it mean and are we going to find another coal shortage as a result?

GRAFFORT CLUB HAS RED CROSS SEWING MEETING

At the Woman's Building Wednesday the Graffort Club held an all day Red Cross sewing meeting, the work being on French refugee garments.

A number of women were employed and in a most patriotic of the basket lunches, while hot coffee, wafers and olives were provided by the club.

In the afternoon Miss Mary E. Smith, secretary of the Red Cross, gave an informal talk on "Why I Am Here." Miss Smith emphasized the fact that the movement is to coordinate under one head all the units composed of girls and young women and that the movement is not for a few special young women but for all and needs the co-operation of every woman.

Principal Lee Gray of the local high school spoke on High School adaptation. In referring to the length of time each pupil should study Mr. Gray said it was difficult to tell, it would usually what a young person is before he is twenty he will be in after life. Those who stand highest in school usually stand highest outside and are most successful in business. Mr. Gray said pupils should acquire this knowledge how long to study and the power to apply themselves and to go about their studies in a business like way—a pupil does not have the realization of school study until he gets his lessons.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Better for Health

A new dust collecting system will be established in building 78 electrical shop where much buffing and grinding of metal is carried on. This is done for sanitary reasons and will mean much to the health of the men employed on this branch of the work.

He Needs Their Help

The employees of the yard power plant are trying to help one of their fellow workmen how to solve his vacation time and the question is how he can get 3 days out of 3 days. They claim that he has been reckoning from the calendar of 1898.

Wants Cars for No Smokers.

The no smokers among the navy yard workmen who patronize the U. & M. railroad are making an appeal to the yard authorities to have two or more cars on the workmen's train reserved for those who do not indulge in smoking. The matter has been taken up with the railroad officials.

To Play at Newburyport.

The gentlemen's basketball team of the Portsmouth yard has accepted the challenge of the girls of the Newburyport high school and will play them in that city on Saturday evening.

Cut Down Boat Building

The order for 1500 motor boats which the Charleston yard received several months ago has now been cut down to 150 by the latest order. The reason, it is said, for such a cut is that the department feels that there is not such a great demand for them.

Fishing Concerns Buys Boats

The crews of the French mine sweepers at the Charleston navy yard are being radically reduced until the number on each is now about 12. The remainder have been sent to France on different transports. The vessels have been purchased by a New York fishing concern.

Wants Musicians

The navy department is making a special effort to secure musicians for the navy. Owing to the large number of men being released from both the Naval Reserves and the navy, the naval bands are being depleted to a great extent and it is essential that enlistments be made to fill these vacancies. The entrance rating will be apprentice seaman for musician, ages 15 to 30. An applicant for this branch of the service must be able to read music and also play easy grade music on band instruments, either string or brass.

Not Much More Room Left

A new chain storage building at the Charleston yard will be erected at the cost of $150,000.

First Japanese Citizen

George Kawamura, steward to Commandant William R. Bush of the Charleston yard, has been granted his full citizenship papers by Judge Morton of the United States Court. He is the first Japanese in New England to become a citizen. He has been in the naval service 19 years and was with Capt. Bush aboard the Connecticut and Florida when they were flagship of the North Atlantic squadron.

Sailors Free Hospital

Two sailors who are on general court martial escaped from the United States naval hospital in Chelsea early this morning, and are being sought by the naval authorities and the police of Greater Boston. Both are second-class seamen and were patients at the hospital undergoing treatment for a minor affliction. Their descriptions as issued to the police are: C. D.

OBITUARY

Arthur Herman Clark.

Arthur Herman Clark son of Mrs. Carrie and the late Herman A. Clark died on Wednesday afternoon at his mother's home on Court street after an illness of a week with pneumonia. He was born in this city and was 32 years of age and at the death of his father came into the wholesale fish business on Commercial wharf and the Clark branch on Pleasant street, which he disposed of a year ago to Fred Shaw. He then took up the automobile business with a salesroom and garage on State street, but subsequently gave this up and when taken ill he was running a Storage Battery station in Manchester.

He came home sick last Thursday and grew rapidly worse until it developed into pneumonia from which he died. He is survived by his mother.

Mrs. Sarah J. Turner

Mrs. Sarah J. Turner passed away at her home, 71 Wilder street, aged 68. She is survived by two sisters, one son, J. F. Turner, two daughters, Mrs. B. M. Hall and Mrs. Frank Newell.

TO HOLD WEEKLY SHOOT ON SATURDAY

The regular weekly shoot at the Portsmouth Country Club traps will be held on Saturday afternoon. There will be no special events other than are made up during the afternoon, possibly a fifty target event and a twenty-five target double event.

The proposed match between the Rye and Portsmouth gunners, will be held at the club on Saturday March 15 with five men to a squad.

It is expected that the shoot next Saturday will be the last over the temporary range, for it is hoped to have the permanent range in operation by that time. The ground is being cleared and just as soon as the automobile trap arrives it will be installed as the trap house is all completed.

There are several young lads who look like real material for developing future champions, two of these the Simileworth boys are showing real class over the traps and with practice and experience they promise to make some of the best gunners all up.

STATE FLOWER AND THE IRISH QUESTION

The bill for a state flower took the attention of the Senate on Tuesday, and a resolution in favor of the self-determination of Ireland occupied the most of the time of the house. There were outbursts of emotion and near rioting and in the end the Senate killed the appleblossom bill and the House passed the Irish resolution.

The state flower bill which passed the house adapting the apple blossom as the flower was in the Senate and it was debated for nearly two hours. Various flowers were suggested even the hop bloom, but it ended in the Senate killing the appleblossom and substituting the purple aster. It will go back to the house and furnish the ground work for more talk.

In the house a resolution asking the President to use his influence with the Peace Conference to consider the self-determination of Ireland, was introduced in the house by Representative Rogers the democratic leader and it opened up a big discussion.

Representative Chittie opposed the resolution in a long speech during which he moved that it be sent to the

THE HERALD HEARS

That we now hear of men's collars taking another jump.

That evidently somebody has a collar on the public.

That the manufacturers while the war was on, had the excuse of no help.

That the war is over, what will be the alibi now?

That the fire zone regulations in this city need more attention and less violation.

That such affairs in other cities do not come under the head of joke stuff.

That a man often feeling his oats in looking in horse sense.

That the eight hours for a working day which the railroad men have been crying for now don't suit many of them, owing to the loss of overtime pay.

That a good bluff goes all right until it meets a bigger one.

That the health officers or somebody should take a look in an alley on Deer street between Vaughan street and Depot avenue.

That this place has been a dump for everything during the past winter.

That it is a useless practice and breeds disease and should be stopped.

That we again hear the state flower argument at Concord.

That the Senate killed the apple blossom and wants the purple aster.

That this makes the seventh flower recommended.

That the lawmakers would do the right thing by indefinitely postponing the whole thing and give their time to something more important.

That while the jokes were being passed in the Senate over this flower for the state somebody suggested the hop vine blossom.

That another replied that he thought the hop vine had hopped out for good in the state.

That it comes hard for some men to look out when his wife is making preparations to spend a week or more in the country.

That the challenge of Miss Tobey, the champion female river driver at the navy yard is said to be still open to all comers.

ROADS IN WORSE CONDITION FOR YEARS

The roads about this section, and the same is true of other parts of the state, are in the worse condition for years. The frost has come out in the past week and with the heavy traffic the roads are in some places not much better than mud holes.

Ruts from six inches to a foot and a half deep are common on the roads and heavy teaming and automobiles have hard work getting over the ground. The stretch of road from Middle street to the Plains is the worse. It has been in for many years and the same is true of the Islington street side.

The State roads are not so bad, but once off the state road and it is a terrible condition that faces the traveler. There was a slight improvement shown on Wednesday some sections have dried up somewhat.

A DOUBLE FUNERAL AT KITTERY POINT

The double funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Elouise W. Hoyt was held from the Free Will Baptist church, Kittery Point Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Edward W. Cummings of New Durham, N. H., a former pastor assisted by Rev. James McKenzie officiating.

Mr. A. S. Sprague sang "Shall we meet," "Abide with me," "My Savior best of all."

The Pall bearers were, Oscar Hutchins, Joseph W. Call, Fred W. Lewis, Wm. C. Kingsbury.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The interment was in the Free Will Baptist Cemetery, Kittery Point, under direction of Undertaker O. W. Ham.

TAKING ACCOUNT OF THE BOOZE AT POLICE STATION

Federal Officer Makes Inventory of Liquor Held by County.

It looks as if another chapter in the fight over the big lot of booze at the police station was opened today when Special Agent Leighton of the Department of Justice, from Concord, came here and took an inventory of the entire lot.

The presence of a man here from the government department means that the federal authorities have not given up any fight to retain it and the county authorities will finally be obliged to release it from the fact alone that it was seized under the Webb-Kenyon law and could not be brought into this state even if it was on the way to Canada.

County Solicitor Shogren, in conversation with a Herald man on Wednesday, said that county authorities were waiting for the outcome of the bill in the legislature amending the Lewis law which would if passed give the county the right to dispose of it by sale for the benefit of the institutions. This bill is now in the senate with not much hope of passing.

At present the tax on this lot of liquor would mean quite a bit of money but where is it coming from and who is going to pay it?

NO INCREASE FOR COMMISSIONERS

Pay Will Be Same for Clerk and Register of Probate.

The Rockingham County members of the legislature do not appear to be out for any increase of salary for the several officials who recently called for more money in bills presented in the House. The bill increases the per diem pay from $3 to $4, would give the commissioners $1,000. The present rate brings it up to $200, or so according to the time the board puts in. The matter brought out much debate and argument and finally ended by an amendment which makes the salary $500.

The clerk of the superior court who receives about $3000 all told, made an appeal in a letter for an increase to cover the expense of a typewriter or an assistant, but the delegation passed it up and refused to take any action.

A bill to increase the register of probate met the same fate.

The bills were reported as inexpedient to legislate.
